Gladstone on the Eastern Question.

LONDON Oct 31—The Contemporary Review contains a paper by Gladstone reviewing Schuyler's book on Turkestan. Extracts from this book have been much quoted lately by the pro-Turkish portion of the press to show that the Russians have been guilty of barbarities equal to those charged against the Turks and the subject has excited interest. The tendency of Mr Gladstone's article is to demonstrate that Schuyler's work is fair and impartial. A part [illegible] is seized upon in order to stir up strife. Mr Gladstone [illegible] deprecates all pretensions of Russia's aggressiveness

The Letter.

WASHINGTON D C Nov 1—The following is the correspondence between Minister Washburne and the Minister of Foreign Affairs of France, relative to the recent publication of a letter in certain French journals concerning the Centennial Exposition

LEGATION OF THE UNITED STATES, }
PARIS Oct 29 1876. }

My Dear Duke De Cazes—I have read with amazement the extraordinary letter published in the Figaro of yesterday over the signature of Dusommerard, who is the General Commissioner of France a pres le Exposition Universal and were this a letter of a private individual, I should deem it utterly unworthy of notice but being from a high functionary of the French Government, having official connection with the American Centennial Exposition, I should be forgetful of my duty and all the obligations I owe to my Government, and to the people of the United States did I not hasten to denounce to you the charges contained in the letter touching the exposition and against my country, its magistracy and even its women, as the most monstrous of calumnies. The substance of the letter has not only been already telegraphed to the United States where it will excite most profound indignation among all classes, but I shall deem it my further duty to call the attention of Mr Fish to the outrageous and slanderous imputation on the American people by the French commissioner. I am, etc

E B WASHBURNE.

Duke De Cazes' Reply.

My Dear Minister—On the 28th inst. you did me the honor to signalize to my attention the publication of a letter attributed by a journal to the French commissioner general at the exhibition at Philadelphia. I hastened myself to bring this regrettable incident to the knowledge of my colleague, the minister of agriculture and commerce, and as early as on 28th the note inserted in Journal Official has proven to you how much the French government preoccupied itself to immediately inquire into the facts and give you in case their exactness should be established a legitimate and prompt satisfaction. As I had hoped the letter published under the signature of Dusommerard is apocryphal. That functionary disavows its informal terms as you will see by his protestation. Here annexed which he has addressed to the minister with whom he is connected, and which seems to me an answer such as we could desire to the calumny. I am pleased to think therefore my dear minister that this categorical declaration closes this regretful incident. No doubt it will seem to you as to me ended and it will have had for its principal result, to furnish to the French government occasion to give by the promptness with which it received from your remonstrance a new testimony of the sentiments of cordial sympathy by which it is animated for the government and people of the United states. I am etc

Brownsville, in Linn county, has a population of 589

Three hundred and forty-six acres of land in the Southern part of Linn county was sold last Monday for $6,500. It is well improved

The farmers along the two branches of Coos river have raised this year thousands of bushels of apples as fine as can be found in the State

A large crop of potatoes was raised in Coos county this year. Last year the potatoes took the rot soon after being holed up and it is feared the same thing will occur this year

At the town election in Brownsville, last Saturday, 24 votes were cast for charter, 1 against. R H Crawford was elected President of the Board of Trustees. W C Baird, H L Brown, O C Cooley and W R Bishop, trustees, D R N Blackburn Recorder. Wm Hunter, Treasurer and M B Crane Marshal

W R Dunbar, G W C T on the 26th ult organized Millicoma Lodge of Good Templars on Coos river with 25 charter members. The following officers were installed: J J Klinkenbeard, W C T; Philura Klinkenbeard, W V T; A M Collver, W S; E W Stewart, P W C T; and Mary R Smith Lodge Deputy. "Millicoma" is the Indian name for Coos river

The last Legislature incorporated the city of North Brownsville and on last Saturday the first city election was held at that place. Five tickets were in the field and great interest was manifested. The city ticket was elected entire and will enter at once upon their duties. Following are the names of the officers: President of the council F F Croft; Councilmen O P Coshow, D H Putnam, J Cunningham and A K Thompson; Recorder J M Cox; Marshal J M Cochran; Treasurer H R Powell

The Albany Democrat says: An accident happened at Lebanon last Monday afternoon which came near resulting fatally to David Ridgeway a young man about 16 years of age. He was standing in front of [illegible] store holding a loaded shotgun by the muzzle and tapping the breech of it on the sidewalk when the stock of the gun slipped through a hole. In the descent the hammer caught on one of the boards causing the discharge of the gun. The whole contents of the barrel struck the young man a little forward, just behind the left ear and ranging upward came out at the top of the head. The flesh on the left side of the head is nearly all torn off but our informant did not know whether the skull was fractured or not. The act was very careless and by it the unfortunate young man may probably lose his life and in any event will be badly disfigured for life

"Like master like man" is a wise saw which will fit very well the kind of resemblance which exists between Mr Tilden and the persons who are known as his kitchen cabinet. Mr Tilden is the type of politician who is usually surrounded by men equally destitute of character and attainments. Intensely selfish, tricky and unscrupulous, he could not in any position command the services of conscientious and self-respecting agents.

The Lick Estate.

The Chronicle this morning prints an interview with one of the attorneys for the trustees of the Lick estate relative to the recent application of John H Lick for letters of administration on his late father's estate. The attorney said the proceeding was perfectly right and proper, as Lick was the only person entitled to letters on his father's estate; that the granting of letters might be contested but he thought it hardly probable and said the only fight the plaintiff could make would be to attempt to prove his father insane when he made the deed and it was hardly within the limits of probability that this could be proved, as for thirty years it had been Mr Lick's avowed purpose to dispose of his property as he finally did. The trustees will combat to the bitter end any attempt to dispossess the beneficiaries by deed of trust of their dues, and unless Mr Lick proposes some compromise which the trustees can honorably accept, a great deal of litigation will undoubtedly ensue. Mr Krebs nephew of James Lick speaking for John H Lick, said the petition for letters meant fight. It might be that some of Mr Lick's estate is not covered by the deed of trust, in which case Mr. Lick will of course obtain it.

Shipment of Silver to Asia.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov 1—The Pacific Mail steamer Alaska sailed to-day for Hongkong via Yokohama, taking over $600,000, silver coin and bullion, a large proportion of which was sent by local banks on account of Eastern and European correspondents, who prefer to settle indebtedness in Oriental markets through this channel and have recently purchased bills on San Francisco in large amounts for that purpose

John Lick Contests his Father's Deed.

It has been ascertained that the main grounds on which John H Lick intends to contest his father's trust deed, are insanity and undue influence on the part of the trustees and others who, it is alleged, have used means to prejudice the deceased against his son, by falsely accusing the latter of obtaining the passage through the legislature of a bill providing that no decedent should devise over a certain proportion of his fortune to charitable or other objects, aside from natural heirs, by which and other alleged untrue representations the deceased was induced to leave his estate in trust to the prejudice of petitioner. The legitimacy of John H Lick will be made a prominent feature in the contests of the trustees and an impression prevails that it will be difficult to prove any action on the part of his father by which his legitimacy can be established

SAN FRANCISCO Nov 1—There was a trotting race at Oakland park to-day for a purse of $2,000 mile heats three in five to harness entries Gov Stanford, Alice, Lou Whipple, Dirigo, Oakland Maid, Sweetbrier and Gold Note. Trying to Get Rid of a Stock Board.

A suit is on trial in the twelfth district court, the point involved being an attempt to dissolve the San Francisco Stock Exchange board or rather to obtain an order declaring that it was dissolved on the 6th of August 1873. The plaintiff is Henry C Hyde assignee of Michael Tranor and George T Knox bankrupts. The defendants are the San Francisco Stock and Exchange Board. The suit grows out of the bankruptcy of Tranor & Knox August 6 1873 who were at that time members of the San Francisco Stock Exchange, by which corporation it is averred in the complaint the assets of the bankrupt firm have been held and used

Another Defalcation.

The State Land Commission appointed to investigate the accounts of ex Surveyor General Gardner find him delinquent to the amount of over $11,000 wholly unaccounted for besides other large amounts the vouchers for which are of a doubtful nature. The Commission also find great carelessness in keeping the accounts of the office under Gardner's administration and claim that Gardner is responsible civilly and criminally for misappropriation of public moneys

SAN FRANCISCO Nov 1—The following dispatch was received here to-day by the secretary of the California Mining Co from James G Fair superintendent at Virginia City: Last evening a rush of water came into the [illegible] from the sills of the 1,500 foot level. It fell through to the bottom of the mine. The quantity has now decreased over one half and will probably run out by night. Little or no damage done

A Man Stabbed Seriously, if not Fatally

[illegible] Nov 1—[illegible] W Hayes one of our [illegible] was seriously if not fatally stabbed [illegible] by [illegible] Neil [illegible] saloon keeper at this place. Mr Hayes was working at a [illegible] when Niel approached using very abusive language [illegible] no attention being paid to him he became more abusive. When Hayes stooped to [illegible] some part of the machinery with which he was working, Niel supposing he was getting something with which to protect himself, stabbed him in the abdomen and again in the left breast and then attempted to escape across the fields but was soon followed by a score of citizens and overtaken and now is in the hands of the constable. There seems to have been no cause for so murderous an attack and the feeling is very strong against Neil. Mr Hayes is at present very low and very little hopes of his recovery are entertained

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

News from the Northern Mines

VICTORIA, Nov 1—The river steamer Beaver from Wrangell with 32 passengers and a small amount of golddust arrived yesterday, and the steamer Isabel also from Wrangell with about 175 passengers and a large amount of treasure arrived early this morning. News from the mines is good. The finding of hill diggings on Thibert creek is confirmed and supposed to be very rich. Diggings are also reported on Force river by one of the prospecting parties, but the extent and locality are unknown

Fire.

A fire was discovered in the smokehouse connected with Heywood's pork packing establishment on Yates street at 8 o'clock last evening. Damage to the building but slight. The fire was quickly subdued

Mining at Victoria.

Five or six men are reported at work on Deception Gulch taking out light pay. A Chinese company abandoned ground that paid fifty cents to the hand and came into town

On the arrival of H M S Fantome at Honolulu, from Victoria a blue jacket was discovered to have the smallpox. The ship was quarantined ten days, when the man recovered, and no further cases making their appearance, the ship was released.

The Herald states that a man named Peterson who is said to have been a trifle "touched in the head," left Preston's camp, North Arm, more than a week ago and has not since been heard of. The boat in which he left was found near the old fishery across the river, tied up to the bank, whence tracks led into the brush

Capt Stuart has discovered on the east coast a vein of magnetic iron ore, with deposits of coal, fireclay and limestone for flux within easy distance, and a good harbor, with every natural facility for working the lead and shipping the ore advantageously. The discoverer has secured the ground, and leaves on the Dakota for San Francisco to complete the formation of a company and commence immediate work

A store occupied by Mr J B Nason, at Richfield, was entered by burglars on the night of the 19th inst, and a safe containing some 150 ounces of gold dust was carried off. The safe was discovered on the following day by Mr A Watson, who traced the burglars along the road between Barkerville and Richfield. At an old dilapidated house there was strong evidence that the robbers had "gone through" the safe and extracted all the valuables therefrom. A search for the thieves was immediately prosecuted, and although suspicion apparently rests on Chinamen, no clew to the burglars has yet been discovered.

GEORGE WASHINGTON—The dress in which George Washington generally appeared at church was a laced hat, stone colored coat with gilt buttons, blue surtout, buff knee breeches, boots and gilt spurs. Being held the best horseman and boldest fox hunter in Virginia it was natural that he followed the fashion prevalent among the young gallants and came to church on horseback. He used a [illegible] hat and generally rode with holsters at his saddle peak. The portrait by Peale which is considered by his relatives the most correct one, represents him at the age of forty in the uniform of colonel of the Twenty second Virginia militia. There is no trace of resemblance to the grandmotherly portrait by Stuart even allowing for the difference of age. The former agrees in personal appearance with the character given him by neighbors, [illegible] bold dashing gallant even after his marriage, rather foppish in dress and [illegible] according as occasion offered to win a [illegible] smile or the fox's brush.

The real and worthiest triumph of Republicans in the West is in the character of the Congressmen they have elected. From Ohio they send ex Governor Cox who has been elected from a district which in 1874 gave nearly 1,900 Democratic majority. He takes the place of a member who like our [illegible] representative has been remarkable for nothing but what Burke called brilliant flashes of silence. He has carried the district because the voters of it have gauged the Democratic party by the quality of the Congressmen imposed upon them and [illegible] contrast between him and [illegible] the [illegible] —B[illegible]

RACY COUNCIL PROCEEDING.

MUNICIPAL DOGBERRIES ON THE RAMPAGE

Our neighboring city of Victoria has a city Council which is at least lively if not dignified. In the report of the meeting of that body published in the Colonist we find the following spicy proceedings:

Coun Trounce asked if there was not some communication which ought to be read in public

The Mayor—I'm sitting here to decide anything of that kind. The law gives me that prerogative. You are only a ward man. I'm here for the whole city

Coun Trounce—I am just as much for the whole city's interests as yourself

The Mayor—Well you're not agoing to speak about this matter anyhow. There ain't any question before the board. I am the representative man here and the whole thing is in my hands

Coun Trounce—Well, sir, I assert my right—

The Mayor—Sit down sir. You shan't speak. I call you to order

Coun Williams—The Councillor is out of order. Sit down

Coun Trounce—It does not matter to me whether you and your councillors are backed by all the devils in hell. I'm going to speak when I get up to do so and—

The Mayor (violently)—I fine you $10, sir! Sit down!

Coun Williams—Yes, and I've called him to order

The Mayor—Coun Williams calls you to order sir!

Coun Trounce—I shan't sit down until I am through. My motion is that the communication I refer to be read in public. It is from the Provincial Secretary on an important matter, and the public have a right to know its contents

The Mayor—Yes but I say that it requires solemn deliberation in committee first

Coun Trounce—Test the matter by putting my motion to have the letter read

The Mayor—I shall not. I'll fine you another $10 if you don't dry up. You don't understand the first thing about parliamentary usage

Coun Trounce—No! and your head is too full of whisky to explain it!

The Mayor—Yes, and you've got Queen Charlotte on the brain

Coun Trounce—My motion is that the letter be read in an open manner

The Mayor—No one seconds your motion and I shan't put it. You are only talking buncombe sir! and I tell you you shan't run this Council. You can't do it, now, do you hear what I say?

Coun Williams called attention to defects in the grade of Johnson street sidewalks. He was walking along there the other night and suddenly he fell whop! all at once. Pretty nearly broke his neck. [A voice, "What a pity!"]

Coun Allatt—Well, you seem to have managed to get up again

Coun Gosnell said that other sidewalks were similarly defective

The Mayor—You mean opposite to the "hard shell Baptists' Church"

Coun Allatt—The property owners should be notified to bring the sidewalks to the proper grade.

Coun Trounce—It is my opinion that if the Council justifies the laying of a sidewalk not in proper grade—

The Mayor—Oh, you don't understand the question. I don't want the Council to listen to you all night.

Coun Trounce—I understand the question perfectly well. Your proposition to rectify the grades of the sidewalks at the cost of the council instead of at the cost of the property owners is absurd. The property owners should be made to do the necessary alterations.

Coun Allatt—Certainly.

Coun Williams—This is in Johnson street ward, and Coun Trounce has no right to speak on the question. [Oh! oh!] I move that a carpenter be employed by the corporation to perform the necessary work

Coun Trounce—I would like to say—

The Mayor—You have spoken once already. You can't run the Council. I won't allow it. Coun Allatt, don't you claim the floor? We have all got heads on us as well as you, Coun. Trounce

Coun Trounce—Yes, but I am afraid yours is on the wrong way

POLITICAL SPEAKING AT THE DALLES

DALLES CITY, Oct 31, 1876

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Messrs Cartwright and Laswell, candidates for Presidential electors, closed their canvass of this section of the State, by addressing the people of the Dalles on the evening of the 28th. This canvass though but little has been published concerning its progress has been productive of great good. Mr Cartwright's able and clear declaration of Republican principles and practices has everywhere aroused the enthusiasm of the thinking listeners, strengthened weak Republicans and opened the eyes of many honest Union Democrats to the bad faith of the Bourbons, to the falsity of their professions, and to the ruinous effect of placing them in power. Mr Laswell's effort here was weak in the extreme, consisting of the heretofore published defenses of the acts of the Democratic party and of the political record of Tilden supplemented by a few sickly anecdotes to fill up the time. The lack of Democratic applause may in part be accounted for by the fact that the audience consisted mainly of those who had attended to hear the address of Mr Cartwright, and well were they repaid for he took up and discussed in an able manner all the leading issues involved in the present election. The audience manifested their appreciation and endorsement by frequent and enthusiastic applause. All the leading Democrats admit that the discussion was very much one sided. Having failed in the appeal to reason the Democrats appealed to appetite and had a blow-out in the Mount Hood Saloon, where a big crowd gathered around the bar and a very small one around the dry goods box where a hired speaker made night hideous with his senseless tirade. Thought has been awakened and examination must result in good. The Democratic chaff now offered to catch votes will not bear inspection. Just look for a large vote for Hayes and Wheeler from Eastern Oregon

SANDWINKER

HOW MANY APPLES DID ADAM AND EVE EAT?—Some say Eve 8 and Adam 2 a total of 10 only. Now we figure the thing out differently. Eve 8 and Adam 8 also. Total 16.—Boston Journal. We think the above figures entirely wrong. If Eve 8 and Adam 82, certainly the total will be 90. Scientific men, however on the strength of the theory that the antediluvians were a race of giants, and consequently great eaters, reason something like this: Eve 81 and Adam 82. Total 163.—Gloucester Advertiser. Wrong again: what could be clearer than if Eve 8 1 and Adam 8-1 2 the total would be 893.—Lawrence American. If Eve 8-1 1st and Adam 8-1 2 would not the whole be 1623?—Boston Journal. I believe the following to be the true solution: Eve 8 1 4 Adam. Adam 8 1 2-4 Eve. Total 8,938.—Veritas. Still another calculation is as follows: If Eve 8-1 4 Adam, Adam 8 1 2-4 2 to oblige Eve. Total 82,056. We think, however this not to be a sufficient quantity; for though we admit Eve 8 1 4 Adam, Adam if he 8 0 1 2-4 2 keep Eve company. Total 8,082,056.—N Y Mail

In a speech in Massachusetts recently Wendell Phillips touching upon local politics, said that Charles Francis Adams is a man who has not known for ten years whether he was a Democrat or Republican, who at his own table in London denied that we were a Nation. Adams, to-day is with the Democratic party, where he belongs, he is its standard bearer, and yet he will not lead it to anything but its grave. An Adams never led any party, except to its death and if the Democratic party of this State places its trust in Charles Francis, that will be its fate.

A LAST APPEAL

SALEM Oct 31 1876

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Friend Hill—Your late able and judicious comments on political subjects and which have made the editorial column more than usually interesting, relieve me of a part of a long letter I purposed writing. So I can more readily comply with the passing remarks on your postal card. Allow me space to briefly notice three or four points, and submit the case to ballot

The money nerve of the business world is the most sensitive in the social fabric and that the syndicate to sell out four and a half per cent bonds has telegraphed from Europe that no more sales can be made "until the election of Mr Hayes is assured" is notice to us that the motives of the Confederates of the South are understood, and that European business men have no faith in Mr Tilden and a Southern triumph at the polls

Mr August Belmont may try to assure English capital that to change political parties here means no more than in England. The Confederates are a little too fresh from their late defeats in war and almost total loss of all values, to be so soon trusted with the application of Northern revenues upon Northern bonds. In their own history English capitalists can go back to the times of Cromwell and the Charleses to see how money faith is kept by rivals in war overturning rivals in peace. Democratic bondholders had better take warning. If Southern claims are added to Northern, greenbacks and bonds will go lower than to 37 cents on the dollar, and if another war follow, our money and bonds will take the place of our old Continental shinplasters, a thousand dollars of them will not buy a breakfast and they will become relics for museums.

Mr Tilden wishing to allay alarm, prom[ises] to veto all Southern claims. Alas for him if he dares do it! Southern Hotspurs like Hampton and Hill, will soon have a place for the pliant Hendricks, and Tilden "will sleep with his fathers."

Horatio Seymour rushes in with a panacea for alarms, and tells us that the grievances of the Republican system of government will be perfected by the House and the Executive being Democrats, and the Senate Republicans. Alas, how long before under Southern intrigue, violence and fraud the Senate will go under a Democratic majority too! And then what becomes of Doctor Seymour's remedy?

But why take any chances? With Mr. Hayes, the country is safe! Its money and bonds are good. Our foreign relations are stable and secure. Our rebels at home are properly constrained. Our 4,000,000, of enfranchised slaves are protected in their rights, of "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." It seems to me that to voluntarily change now, would be National suicide! It seems to me to be the most unbounded and unblushing cheek in the South to ask for the government.

Since the first great secession we read of, when Lucifer aspired for a separate government (and got it, such as it is, and it is said to be a hell of a government), there is no recorded instance in history, human or divine, where the seceders, in the brief space of eleven years, went up to the capitol and offered to take charge of the old home government.

SUCH SUBLIME IMPUDENCE

May now inspire Satan to go knocking at the doors of the Kingdom of Heaven and there ask for the deposition of Almighty God and of Michael and his angels. Think of Wade Hampton, Ben Hill, Jeff Davis, Beauregard and their murderous conferees sitting in the White House, and at "the receipt of customs," and smilingly paying off the bonds of the Republicans who lately drove them into the sea at the point of the bayonet.

WHY IS THE OLD REBEL CAMP SO ACTIVE.

Even Gen Lane comes down from his hermitage in the mountains and with a long stick stirs up the copperhead element in Oregon. Notice that this campaign is being pushed everywhere by the old rebel element. All those who hurrahed for Jeff Davis and over Southern victories, who applauded Wilkes Booth for the assassination of Lincoln and went into mourning over the hanging of their Mother Surratt. Can Republicans and peace Democrats account for it except that that rebel element has first unified the South, and now only lacks 53 Northern electoral votes to achieve by the ballot what they failed to do by the bullet, as their Southern stump orators boast and threaten. And that is what they are now working to accomplish.

THE REAPPEARANCE OF GEN. LANE

Upon the field ought to satisfy Republicans and Union Democrats that "mischief is afoot." Lane has always been a man of positive convictions, and of work under them. He was such when he fought for his whole country in Mexico. But being of Carolinian origin, and born with the virus of slavery in his veins he went off with the land of his instincts. Have people in Oregon forgotten how that gallant Union soldier, Sumner, to save this coast from being carried out of the Union by Lane and his confederates, had to hide the uniform of the nation in his trunk, and traveled as an unknown citizen in the same ship, in order to reach the headquarters of the rebel Johnston and relieve him of his command, just in time to thwart the secession that Lane was to consummate here? Have they forgotten how Lane was indignantly burned in effigy in Polk county, where Nesmith checked the movement, and the old man sought safety in his mountain home for fifteen years? I ask what brings him to the surface now but the hope of a revival of his favorite "lost cause?"

Oregonians as you love peace and safety do your duty on the day of the election. Let no lover of his country stay at home or vote foolishly. It is part of the plan of their battle to make every Democrat, however lukewarm, vote to go after him wheel him to the polls, surround him and see that he gets no other ticket than the one they give him, and see that he votes it. They have spotted every reluctant man and if he is not at the polls by 3 o'clock he is to be brought there, and each squad will be old rebels and secessionists that goes after him! Mark that, also. Vote early and you can vote in peace and vote as you like. Delays are counted on. Their 500 majority they count on from the wagons. Shall they have it? Gentlemen vote early and save this State—it may be from ruin devastation and fire. We cannot trust our old enemies with power over us. We have forgiven them. Shall our amnesty become fatal to us? They have not forgiven us; it is not their nature. The rattles of slavery is incurable in most of them and the serpents that we have warmed in our bosoms—the rattlesnake and the copperhead—have turned to adders and will sting us to the heart. Citizens of Oregon you can save yourselves with the BALLOT and now

Let us be up and at them tried and true
And roll them back on Waterloo!

Yours for the American nation and peace

G W LAWSON

The proscriptive spirit of the Southern Tildenites, it seems, is not to be confined to their own section but is to be extended to the North if they have the power. In illustration read this from the Richmond (Va) Dispatch of Friday: Some clat has been awarded to Mr Benjamin Harrison the defeated Radical nominee for Governor of Indiana on the ground that he is a grandson of the late President Harrison. A very outrageous misdirection of sentiment. A man of such an origin, and with Virginian blood in his veins, to consort with a party that persecutes and oppresses the people of the land of his fathers should be held as a social and political renegade

A party of colored "tourists" passed through Fort Plain recently, the patriarch propelling a wheelbarrow laden with household goods, the eldest son carrying a banjo and a satchel, the younger one a stew pan and pail, the daughter leading a dog and the old woman skipping along free and unincumbered.

HAYES, TILDEN AND THE AMERICAN ALLIANCE

Some of the Tilden organs are making much ado over the nomination of Hayes and Wheeler by a secret organization or political order known as the American Alliance. A letter of Governor Hayes' private secretary acknowledging the receipt of a notification of the nomination and thanking the Alliance for its partiality, is paraded before the country as if it were a document proving Hayes to be everything bad that he has been called by the opposition, whereas it is nothing more than a polite note such as any gentleman might be expected to send to any body of respectable people who had expressed themselves kindly toward him, notwithstanding he might not agree with them in the main objects of their organization. Nearly a month since we received by telegraph and published a letter of the secretary of the Alliance to the New York Times, which shows that two years ago Tilden sustained exactly the same if not closer relations to the Alliance than Hayes now occupies. As some of our [illegible] may have forgotten the contents, of that letter, we reprint it

AMERICAN ALLIANCE,
[illegible] EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE ROOMS
NEW YORK, Oct 6

To the Editor of the New York Times

[illegible] to correct some of the mistakes in [illegible] which was published in the World, on Wednesday, as coming from Gov [illegible] secretary, and first—Gov Hayes never [illegible] of the American Alliance [illegible] He never saw the constitution or [illegible] of the organization Third—No com[illegible] of this order ever, at any time, called [illegible] at Columbus, Philadelphia or [illegible], for any purpose. We simply [illegible] by letter that we indorsed his [illegible] answer to which we received [illegible]. That letter was [illegible], and I was as much sur[illegible] to see it in print. I [illegible] should [illegible] we in[illegible] two [illegible] ago, [illegible] but on the con[illegible] only [illegible] it might be kept [illegible] become public, he feared he might [illegible] vote. Respectfully yours,

LEMUEL S TYLER,
Secretary A A

[illegible] are not so unreasonable as to find [illegible] Mr. Tilden for accepting the [illegible] this Alliance two years ago [illegible] only what he would do now [illegible] were offered to him [illegible] opponent. It may be laid [illegible] proposition that candi[illegible] will gladly accept all the [illegible] offered. Mr. Tilden is not [illegible]. It is not because there is [illegible] honorable in being endorsed [illegible] tical Alliance that this en[illegible] urged against Gov Hayes [illegible], but because, instead of [illegible] their candidate, as they [illegible] ago, they have resolved to [illegible].

"[illegible] FATHER, LIKE SON."

[illegible] his son is still on his [illegible] the State seeking votes [illegible] whose allegiance [illegible] cratic party is so much [illegible] his allegiance to principle, [illegible] on himself, at the dic[illegible] caucus, and misrepre[illegible] people of Oregon by voting to [illegible] law for the resumption of [illegible] much allowance will be [illegible] anxiety of General Lane [illegible] his son, this charitable [illegible] indulgence will not be [illegible] extent of causing the pub[illegible] part he played in the United States just previous [illegible]. Nor do his extravagant [illegible] loyal affection for the gov[illegible] the constitution redound to [illegible] all the facts are borne in [illegible] the General came out now, [illegible] reconstructed secessionist of [illegible] the decision of arms as [illegible] adverse to him and his [illegible] of endeavoring to make it [illegible] he was always a Union man, [illegible] the public mind would be [illegible] from that which is pro[illegible] speeches. He might be able [illegible] in the same position with [illegible] and Early, and the nu[illegible] who acquiesce in the result [illegible] national disputes; [illegible] never be successful in the [illegible] appear that he has al[illegible] friend of the Union [illegible] of his last speeches in [illegible], in the eloquent phrase [illegible] son, "altogether diaph[illegible] the saying, "Like father, like [illegible] is it not reasonable to as[illegible] LaFayette's protestations of [illegible] Constitution are also "alto[illegible]?"

SET AT REST

[illegible] Steel, chairman of the Re[illegible] central committee, has received, [illegible] to a telegram of inquiry sent [illegible] the following emphatic contra[illegible] the statements of the Demo[illegible] that Gov Hayes is a mem[illegible] American Alliance

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct 31 1876

[illegible] G. A. Steel, Chairman Republican State Committee Governor Hayes was [illegible] ber of American Alliance, never [illegible] with Know Nothingism, and never [illegible] bership in any society hostile to [illegible] naturalized citizens

A T WICKOFF

[illegible] settles the matter (if it had not [illegible] already settled), and shows what an [illegible] campaign is making [illegible] Hayes. These model reformers, [illegible] two years ago, angled successfully for the vote of the Alliance would have [illegible] a very awkward exposition of their disregard of truth in their plan of the campaign if they had never allowed themselves to be guilty of the meanness of trumping up this wretched falsehood

BE CAREFUL HOW YOU VOTE

Information of an apparently reliable character reaches us that the Democratic managers have determined to get up a large number of tickets similar in general appearance to the Republican tickets but having the name of one of the Democratic candidates for elector substituted for one of the Republicans on some of the tickets, and that of Mr Lane substituted for that of Mr Williams on others [illegible] tickets are to be varied, so as to take away a few votes from each of the Republican electors, and a few from Williams, giving them to the Democratic candidates. Of course the only votes they would thus get away from the Republicans would be such as might be secured through the carelessness of voters in examining their tickets. The number would be comparatively small, but it might be sufficient to affect the result. Every Republican voter should be on his guard on election day and see to it that his ticket contains the names of J W Watts J C Cartwright and W H Odell for electors and Richard Williams for Congressman

The passage of the ordinance by the common council last night reducing the salary of the superintendent of streets to the contemptible sum of $300 per annum is one which cannot but be regarded as an unwise piece of business and unworthy of the law makers of the city. The supporters of the measure could hardly have had any other design than to drive the present incumbent out of the office as they can not expect any one to fill it at such a compensation. This ordinance, should it become a law will be productive of great inconvenience and probably of much injury to the city during the winter season, now at hand when more than at any other time, the services of the superintendent are needed. The streets are undergoing less improvement in the winter than in summer, but they require more constant watching, and more frequent repairs in a small way and the work of the superintendent cannot be dispensed with without positive injury to the interests of the property holders. The Mayor will probably decline to give his official assent to the ordinance and we trust that Councilmen Andrus Corbett, Harrington Lambert Skidmore and Stephens, who voted aye last night, will see the impropriety of the measure and if it should again come before them vote with Councilman Wiley, who alone opposed it

The assertion of the Democrats that Hayes was a know nothing, and that he is a member of the American Alliance, a Know-nothing organization under another name, is not true but it is true that the Know-nothing organization in Oregon was composed mainly of Democrats, and that the grand panjandrum of the grand central wigwam was a Democratic politician whom his party afterwards elected to Congress. Foreign-born citizens will bear this in mind on election day

The crowded state of our columns must excuse us to those correspondents whose communications do not appear as early as they may wish. Political matter and the important European telegraphic dispatches have forced us to leave out much that we should be glad to publish.

Tilden is so out of health that it is predicted in New York that if elected President he would not, in all probability, live through the first year of his term. Should this prediction be verified, Hendricks would be President. How does that look to hard money men?

Tilden's accusation of Hayes in connection with the American Alliance is the most notable instance in a long time of the thief's cry of "Stop thief!" Two years ago he was the candidate of that same Alliance for Governor of New York

If Gov Hayes is the enemy of foreign born citizens, how is it that he is so warmly supported by Carl Schurz and other leading German orators? Have not they sense enough to know their enemies from their friends?

WHAT IT TAKES TO MAKE A TRUE AND STAUNCH DEMOCRAT

BAKER CITY, OGN, Oct 29, 1876

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Judge Kelley and Col. Sheil were billed to speak at Springville, in this county, on the 26th ult., but it seemed that the "Judge" was too much fatigued, and the "Colonel" had the whole time. It happened to be a rainy evening, and when the time arrived for him to commence his talk there was not a Republican present (and I take it he had been so informed), but as good luck would have it I happened to drop in about the middle of his speech, or in time to hear him say that when the Democratic party got the control of this government they would wipe out that 'foul stain' on our constitution, the 14th and 15th amendments. His speech from the time of my arrival to its conclusion was one of the most ultra "secesh," fire-eating speeches I ever heard. After the Colonel was through T C Hyde was called out, and after a few preliminary remarks he said he could recommend the Colonel for a staunch and true Democrat for he knew that he had foregone the practice of the law rather than take the oath of allegiance to the Black Republican government. So you see Mr Editor what it takes to make a "true and staunch" Democrat

JEFF DAVIS RATIFIES

The Grand Rapids (Mich) Journal has this stand off to the Kilpatrick letter to Hayes

LANGHAM HOUSE, LONDON, ENG
July 25, 1876

To the Hon John Kelly, Tammany Hall—Dear Sir I am obliged to you for your kind attention in transmitting to me an invitation to attend your Tilden and Hendricks ratification meeting at Tammany Hall this evening. I am heart and soul with you in the good cause of Democratic restoration and reform. The St Louis nominees can count on an almost unbroken South in their support. I know Tilden and Hendricks well. While the Southern people were bravely contending in the field for four long years of cruel war your nominees both in the forum and as private citizens, were giving their political aid and comfort to our righteous cause. I think that we will gain all that we lost by the war between the States in the election of those glorious champions of State sovereignty and the Constitution as it was. Distance, however will put it out of my power to be present at your meeting, and I use the Atlantic cable to telegraph you my greetings. I shall be home in November to use my influence with the Southern people for our nominees whose triumph would be hailed here in England with almost as much joy as it would be in the halls of Tammany. Perhaps I may favor my Democratic friends in New York with a speech on completing my European mission. Yours ever for Democracy and reform

JEFFERSON DAVIS

LETTER FROM LAFAYETTE'S GRANDSON. Mayor Wickham of New York City has received a letter from the grandson of General Lafayette dated Sept 29 which translated is as follows

MY DEAR SIR I have been absent from home and have only just received the American newspapers concerning accounts of the ceremonies attending the inauguration of the statue of my grandfather Gen Lafayette. I am but performing a [illegible] when I [illegible] you in my own name and in behalf of all my family how much we have [illegible] and how grateful we are [illegible] that [illegible] New York have been pleased to secure an [illegible] immortalize the very image of Lafayette in the city in which the combat[illegible] saw in [illegible] fancy and which has to-day become one of the first in the world. Nothing can better prove how just the war for American Independence was and how marvelous [illegible] of its results. [illegible] descendants of Gen Lafayette make their sincere acknowledgments to the citizens of New York and to all others who were [illegible] with them in the ceremonies. You have the [illegible] honor to be the Chief Magistrate of the great American city. Allow me to present to you personally the thanks of my family with assurances of my own distinguished consideration

OSCAR DE LAFAYETTE, Senator

SLADE

London telegrams for some days past have been telling of the trial of Dr Slade for various misdemeanors and at last have given account of his conviction and sentence to prison for vagrancy. Here is a brief history of Slade and his doings and how he came to grief

The great city of London like great cities everywhere, contains thousands of people whom Carlyle would characterize as mostly fools. That city has of late been greatly excited over the supposed supernatural performances of that quasi American celebrity Dr Slade. Not content with the many proofs given to the world of the utter humbug and deception practiced by hundreds of professional mediums people have poured their money into Slade's coffers until that interesting fraud has amassed a considerable fortune. How long this slate-writing deception might have proved a winning card and how many innocent fools might have gone on believing that Julius Cæsar and the late Duke of Wellington had honored them with their special spiritual confidence it is difficult to say. Happily in an auspicious moment for the plundered public and an evil one for the medium a scientific gentleman Dr Lankester [illegible] made up his mind that he would [illegible] the bottom of this affair or forever after hold his peace. The Doctor approached his game slyly and warily. He did not desire to frighten his mediumistic bird so he probably allowed him a considerable range of tether. He listened with interest to billets doux from his departed great grandmother and accepted as gospel the ungrammatical platitudes of Humboldt and Sir Isaac Newton. But the decisive moment came. Slade had just been entered by the spirit of Robinson Crusoe and his man Friday introduced by Daniel Defoe deceased and was firing away at railway speed, telling how jolly it was to be a spirit and have nothing to do but sit on a sunbeam and blow a trumpet when a hand was quickly thrust beneath the table cloth, cabinet, or whatever it was, and an arm grasped with a clutch of steel. At the extremity of that arm lay a slate and in these very human fingers a slate pencil. That arm and that slate pencil belonged to Dr Slade. The doctor was caught and the medium business blown to the four winds. Now Professor Lankester being a practical man as well as a scientific one thought that this thing had gone on long enough, and that the sooner Slade was brought before a court of justice to answer to the charge of fraud and conspiracy the better. He accordingly caused his arrest.

A NUT FOR DEMOCRATS TO CRACK

PORTLAND, Oct 29, 1876

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Here is a nut for some Democratic admirers of Mr A C Edmunds (who is "stumping the State for Tilden and Hendricks") to crack. The

"VOTER'S BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE"

Caused a great stir amongst voters at the time it appeared. Its wholesale abuse and denunciation of those who differed from the views of the author on the Temperance question, was so bitter and slanderous that it defeated its own object, disgusted many and help'd beat the Temperance candidate for Congressional honors. Whilst this Democratic speaker is in the midst of a violent harangue against the "corruptionists of the Republican party," somebody ought to step up to him and gently whisper in his left ear "Who wrote the 'Voter's Book of Remembrance'?" Are you not afraid some voters will remember the contents of that book?

LIBERAL

In a California exchange we find the following notice of a pleasant meeting of pioneer ladies of the Pacific coast

A re-union of old California ladies—46 ers—occurred at Mrs Gov Boggs', near Napa, recently. The party consisted of Mrs Dr G B Crane of this place, Mrs Isaac Branham of San Jose, Mrs Ogier of the same place (daughter of Mrs B), and Mrs Boggs herself and daughter, and Mrs James M Palmer. These five ladies crossed the plains together 30 years ago, and doubtless had many an exciting scene to live over again in their comfortable re union in the prosy days of 76. It is still more remarkable, too, that within an hour after this party separated, another pioneer lady of the same era arrived at Mrs Boggs. It was Mrs Gov. Curry, of Oregon, who crossed the plains also in 46. It was an historic meeting, such as will probably never occur again.

The New York Sun tells Butler that his explanation of the cause of the newspaper assaults upon him—that he offended them by once saying that he thanked God he was a man made by God and not by the newspapers—is not sufficient. They rejoiced rather than sorrowed when he relieved them of the responsibility of making him

—Once again we are called upon to [illegible] the presence, in this city, of this [illegible] scourge. The yellow flag is floating [illegible] breeze at a house on Front street [illegible] No. 1's stable, and the unwelcome word [illegible] conspicuously displayed. About [illegible] ago Jacob Cline was taken ill. A [illegible] was sent for after a few days had [illegible] who, on examining the symptoms, [illegible] the disorder a "disease of the [illegible]." Soon after it was discovered that the [illegible] was varioloid. Cline's two sons, aged [illegible] about eight and twelve years, who [illegible] living with him, not being vaccinated, [illegible] the disease and are both down sick. The lads have the worst type of confluent smallpox, and their recovery is regarded [illegible]. Cline is convalescent, and will [illegible] around again. Through carelessness [illegible] a number of persons have un[illegible] been exposed to the contagion, and [illegible] it is a difficult thing to determine [illegible] the disease will extend. Chief Lappeus [illegible] and committee on health and police are [illegible] every precaution to prevent a further [illegible] of the contagion. Meantime we advise [illegible] to vaccinate and be careful where they [illegible].

[illegible] FOR YOUNG LADIES.—Miss Helen F. [illegible] and Mrs. Henderson, both experienced and skillful teachers, have now in [illegible] in this city an interesting and advantageous school for young ladies, both in [illegible] and classical studies. This school is [illegible] at, between Taylor and Salmon, [illegible] residence of Mrs. Henderson, where [illegible] connected with it is made home-[illegible] ling. Young ladies not wishing [illegible] a regular course at seminaries, but [illegible] to complete some of the more important studies, or review them, can [illegible] more favorable opportunity than is [illegible] Miss Spaulding's school. Such as [illegible] in at home for study and attend only for recitation. The afternoons, [illegible] on, are given to the study [illegible], whether German, French or [illegible] desire to acquire them. All [illegible] know of no school which we [illegible] commend to the class of [illegible] mentioned, than this school under [illegible] of Miss H. F. Spaulding.

[illegible] HALSEY.—At the late session of [illegible] the town of Halsey, in [illegible] was incorporated, and should [illegible] prove acceptable to the inhabitants [illegible], Halsey will henceforth assume [illegible] belonging to a city. Under [illegible] of the charter granted, the election for that embryo municipality [illegible] to-day. The question also of, [illegible] charter be accepted?" is to be determined [illegible] vote at the same ballot cast [illegible] who (perhaps) are to "reign in and [illegible] that municipality. Should the [illegible], the officers will not be re-[illegible] and if accepted, they will [illegible] the duties of their high and [illegible] at once.

[illegible] AFFRAY.—Through the courtesy [illegible], of Halsey, Linn county, [illegible] in the city on business, we were [illegible] to see a private telegram received [illegible] yesterday afternoon. [illegible] we learn that an altercation [illegible] day at Halsey between [illegible] S. W. Hayes and K. Neale, [illegible] the latter receiving what is re-[illegible] at the hands of the lat-[illegible] are furnished. Hayes [illegible] to live when the dispatch was [illegible] we are informed, is a highly [illegible] of Halsey, and the sanguin-[illegible] of the difficulty is greatly re-[illegible] many friends of the wounded [illegible].

[illegible]—The foundation planning, which [illegible] supported one of the oldest [illegible] suddenly gave way [illegible] and let the house come [illegible] terrific crash, demolishing [illegible]. The building was occupied [illegible] knight of St. Crispin and his [illegible] themselves nor their furni-[illegible] although the inmates were [illegible]. The Knight was in the act of [illegible] when the building fell, [illegible] towards, performing a back [illegible] would do credit to a profes-[illegible]. He said he thought his last [illegible].

[illegible] Oscar Kilbourn, the well-[illegible] of the hotel, was engaged [illegible] selling pools on the result of [illegible] presidential and congressional [illegible] off next Tuesday. Although [illegible] excitement manifested, [illegible] of pools were sold. On the [illegible] of the presidential election, the [illegible] For Hayes, $100; Tilden, $80, [illegible] were sold on the result of the [illegible]. The first pool sold; [illegible] Lane, $15. Second pool; [illegible] Hayes, $15,—making it a "stand [illegible]".

[illegible] AN ENGINE.—Mr. W. C. Noon, [illegible] Bag Factory, received on the [illegible] small boiler and engine attach-[illegible] will hereafter be employed in driv-[illegible] machines used about the fac-[illegible] is of 4½ horse power, and [illegible] or more large sewing ma-[illegible] time. Yesterday workmen were [illegible] ing up shafting and pulleys, [illegible] will be in readiness in a day [illegible] will be a great improvement over [illegible] heretofore employed to run [illegible].

BRIEF NOTES.

Vaccinate.

Shipping very lively.

Gate swinging fashionable now.

Nights are moony and lovers are spoony.

Meeting of Republican German's this evening.

The Walla Walla races commenced yesterday.

There was a "nipping air" floating around last evening.

Five more days and then we deposit our "snowflake."

Public schools of the city are in a flourishing condition.

The Indian commissioners will start for Lapwai to-morrow morning.

The color of the water in the Wallamet reminds one of the "Red Missouri."

The elegant new residence of Hon. H. W. Corbett will soon be ready for occupancy.

Morality and sobriety in the ascendent, and the police records are devoid of any interest.

The steamship Geo. W. Elder is announced to sail for San Francisco Saturday morning at 6 o'clock.

The bark Kingdom of Sweden went down the river yesterday morning in tow of the E. N. Cooke.

Notwithstanding the ge-lorious moonlight last night, a cloud of fog hung over the bosom of the river.

Yesterday, in the case of Charles Barthol, administrator, vs. Adam Lope, special verdict for plaintiff returned.

Union meeting last evening at Young Men's Christian Association rooms. Services were conducted by Hon. Wm. Stickney, secretary of the board of Indian commissioners.

Mr. Richard Tomlinson, who came here as first officer on the British bark Canoma, but who left that vessel, is now first mate of the bark Garibaldi. Mr. Tomlinson is an experienced and trusty seaman.

Croakers affirm that it is always cloudy in Oregon. Last night, from our editorial window, Mount Hood was clearly visible in the bright moonlight, "as much as 80 miles away." Not much clouds about that.

NEW BOOKS.

The following new books have just been added to the Portland Library:

History of the Big Bonanza: an authentic account of the Discovery, History and Working of the world renowned Comstock Silver Lode of Nevada, including the present condition of the various mines situated thereon; sketches of the most prominent men interested in them; incidents and adventures connected with mining, the Indians and the country; amusing stories, experiences, anecdotes, and a full exposition of the production of pure silver; by Dan de Quille (William Wright;) profusely illustrated.

Mrs. Dr. B. A. Owens. Office and residence, east side First street, between Yamhill and Taylor. Special attention given to Women and Children complaints. Also gives Medicated Vapor Baths in treating Rheumatism and Chronic Diseases.

Barnes will give his customers some "way up" dishes to-day. Call and see him.

Still they come: Just received a large lot of overcoats per steamer Elder, for Kohn's Clothing Palace.

Captains and pilots will note the fact that Peter Wilhelm has fitted up two rooms for their especial use at the Fountain, corner Ash and First streets. English papers on file daily and everything cosy.

In SOL'S RESTAURANT, Portland has got what it so much needed a first class Restaurant, where ladies and gentlemen can take their meals and be furnished with all the delicacies that this and the California market afford. The proprietors finding that they have not room enough for the accommodation of their patrons on their first floor are busy at work fitting up the second floor, containing six rooms, which they hope to have ready by the 15th of November. It is what it represents itself a first class Restaurant, and the proprietors will spare no pains to keep it such.

W. L. ADAMS, M. D., A. M., LL.D., corner of First and Salmon streets, is curing the most inveterate chronic diseases of all kinds at a low price, by medicated, electric lightning cream baths, and by combining the German and French with the American improved practice, mixed with a little common sense. His treatment is, in the main, entirely original, and works almost miracles, as his numerous patients will attest. Is extraordinarily successful in treating female complaints.

Sore eyes speedily relieved. The worst form of piles cured, and the most malignant cancers eradicated root and branch without the use of the knife, or the money refunded.

CUT THIS OUT
IT MAY SAVE YOUR LIFE.
There is no person living but what suffers more or less with Lung Disease, Coughs, Colds or Consumption, yet some would die rather than pay 75 cents for a bottle of medicine that would cure them. Dr. A. Boschee's German Syrup has lately been introduced in this country from Germany, and its wonderful cures astonishes every one that try it. If you doubt what we say in print, cut this out and take it to your Druggist and get a sample bottle for 10 cents and try it. Large size 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you. Light streamed from pole to pole

This morn I was a boy
And now I am a man

Stars, let me hear you shout
Oh, leaves, hang not so still!
Wind, call your music out!
My love has said "I will.

My hope has then come true—
He loves me, so he said
How that my pulses flew—
My cheek is burned, how red!

So many things I seemed to hear,
And [illegible] I [illegible] to see,
Was it through eye and ear

But love and live for him?

OBJECTS.

This Savings Bank has been formed at the desire and under the auspices of thirty one gentlemen citizens of Oregon and Washington Territory who have become Stockholders therein along with certain other gentlemen in Scotland to supply a want hitherto much felt, namely an Institution where similar to those in California, the working farming and other classes of Oregon and Washington Territory may from time to time deposit their various savings along with the Bank's own capital for investment in Oregon and Washington Territory (to which the Bank's operations are limited) secured from Mortgages over City Properties, Farming and other Lands for the purpose thereby of assisting to develop the industries of the North Pacific coast.

The Bank's Directors and Officers in Oregon having had considerable experience in finance and real estate securities, their policy will be to guard depositors' moneys and the stockholders' capital by loaning only on first class securities, high interest being a secondary consideration. The Bank does not therefore seek to employ its funds in a commercial banking business, confining its operations strictly to those securities with which its Directors are familiarly acquainted, such as real estate loans, advances on bonds, assignments and similar securities which are not fluctuating in value, hence no loans will be made on Promissory Notes alone, or Bills of Exchange and such like.

Security to Depositors.

The security for repayment of Depositors' moneys is two-fold

1st Not only the mortgages assignments, bonds and other pledges on which the Bank's deposits are carefully loaned and the real estate secured thereby, which must be located in Oregon and Washington Territory, but also,

2d, The Bank's own $300 000 capital specially pledged for the safety of depositors, in order that all losses (if any) shall be made therefrom, thus forming a double security for depositors' moneys.

No charge for entrance fee or pass books

Deposits received from $2 50 and upwards.

Rates of interest on application

Hours, from 9 A M to 3 P M
